

CONFLICT MANAGEMENT FOR LEADERS™

In a volatile and uncertain world, conflict, of any kind is very much inevitable. Disagreements between employees happen all the time; and unfortunately, these are unavoidable. However, their impact can be minimised, based on the culture of the organisation. It is our leaders who must set the tone, by knowing how to handle such disputes effectively.

This unique course has been specifically designed to support leaders in understanding the culture they create and the teams they develop, under the lens of conflict management. Delegates will develop an understanding of how their behaviour as leaders set the course for how their managers and teams behave themselves.

TCM's expert trainers offer a unique insight into what conflict is, how it happens, why it happens, and how it can be passed down through organisations. Delegates will develop practical toolkits that they can pass onto their teams to use to ensure for the constructive resolution of conflicts in the workplace.
